HARLEM RACING.

High flying masses of black boulder-like clouds greeted the big day of jubilee week, and the sun occasionally showing through lit up as glorious a mud puddle as ever was seen at the Harlem racecourse, where assembled besides the regular patrons of the track, some hundreds of country folk that tired of the "doings down town" and sought a change of excitement.

The horsemen are so eager after the purses at this time of the year that only four horses were scratched of the forty-nine whose names appeared upon the program. There were the usual seventeen regular and two field book-makers.

In the first race, three-quarters of a mile, for two-year-old maiden fillies, there were almost as many "good things" as there were starters. Barney Schreiber's Rosebeau, by Flambeau—Fairy Rose, the dam of Racine, was the first to be knocked from a long price to a short one. "Bish" Poole said that he saw 110 to 1 against Rosebeau, but couldn't get on, although he was seen in the bookmaker took a few dollars to show at 10 to 1. The Ryan crowd backed Wilmington's Pet, and Rosie Burke was well supported, as also the favorite, Sidtilla. At the second attempt a good start was effected, Wilmington's Pet being last away. Princess Murphy led away from the gate, Anna Held and Sidtilla next, but in the first sixteenth La Josephine cut out the running and led into the straight, where Rosebeau ran around her on the outside and then took the inside rail the remainder of the way. J. Ward went to whipping Rosebeau at the last sixteenth, but even so Schreiber's filly won by two lengths from La Josephine, one length better than Sidtilla, third; she three lengths ahead of Anna Held; the others beaten off.

Elidad, whose win some weeks ago at the long price of 150 to 1, occurred when the going was exactly like that of yesterday, was opened at the extremely liberal price of 2 to 1 for the second race. Hardly was "the tip" and carried the smart money. To a good start, Moch, Inuendo and Hardly was the order at the quarter, but soon Hardly went to the front. Inuendo stuck close for another quarter, then quit and finished "absolutely." Moch did not last much longer. At the far turn Elidad quickly passed to the lead and the race was over midway of the upper turn, the favorite galloping home alone. Penso Roso gave Hardly quite a race for the place, but was beaten. The others were straggling to the sixteenth.

For the third race, Abuse, opening at 1 to 2 went up to 4 to 5, because of the strong backing accorded Montgomery, who, receding a point, closed at 7 to 5. One might write his own ticket about the others, bar King Bermuda, held at 12 to 1. Montgomery led Abuse from the post by one half length and remained just ahead of the favorite, throwing mud in the old fellow's face to the bend for home where he led him two open lengths. This advantage he retained to the finish. Montgomery won hard held, while Abuse was punished the last eighth. King Bermuda, third, was beaten twenty lengths and the other starters were as far behind him.

Donna Rita led when the first turn in the fourth race was made, Plantain second, Great Bend third. All were closely together entering the backstretch, but Hosi soon weakened and fell out. At the far turn the race was reduced to a match, Donna Rita leading Great Bend into the homestretch by two lengths. Now Dupee worked hard on the latter and the newcomer tried gallantly. Being unused to running in a swamp, he stumbled perceptibly on the turn but managed to get to the leader three-sixteenths from home. When Dean called on the favorite, Donna Rita showed a disposition to swerve under punishment, but the inside fence stopping her from cutting it, she was straightened up by Dean and won driving by two open lengths, simply because Great Bend died off on the end. Plantain, ten lengths away, beat Mistral II easily for the third money.

Mr. Bradley said the other day: "I won whole stacks of money and banked it on Blitzen, and I have a $50,000 Virginia farm to show for it. They always laid a false price against Blitzen, and I used to bet as high as $1,000 a crack on him." Blitzen used to run every day, so what more natural than that his son, Boney Boy, should do the same thing. Yesterday this colt started for the third day in succession, and he didn't do a thing—only beat Espionage by ten lengths, and he galloping, while Ezell's filly was punched out the last quarter. Espionage had risen in price from 3 to 5 to "evens," but 9 to 10 was the post quotation, showing backing, and this advanced Boney Boy one-half point. Espionage led away from the gate, but Boney Boy hung to her, and going into the lead before the half mile ground was reached, he widened the gap at every stride. Doremus, third on the upper turn, was lengths ahead of the others, Harry Nutter being far in the rear. The latter, which, as at his last start at Hawthorne, fell away in the first eighth, came on strongly, and at the final sixteenth would possibly have beaten Doremus for third money had not the latter jostled him. Doremus finished fifteen lengths behind Espionage.

Bishop Reed broke quickest in the closing dash and Dunois did not get to second position until three-eighths had been covered. Here Count Fonso and Inconstancy were close up and Vice Regal was fifth, six lengths behind the leaders the others already out of it. Bishop Reed and Dunois raced alongside from the last turn to the betting ring where the former stopped, but Dunois was soon picked up by Vice Regal (who third by three lengths at the last quarter, had been from there punished severely) and a hot and heavy finish resulted, returning as winner Dunois by a neck. Bishop Reed beat Inconstancy and Count Fonso lengths for third money.

Arthur McKnight's left hand was badly maimed at Windsor last week by a bite from the vicious filly Sister Mamie. Friends of the best of assistant starters will be glad to know that no lasting injury will follow, the wound having been excellently cared for.

The starting of Mr. Dwyer could not have been bettered. There were no delays at the post and every horse that started during the day might have won.

Gus Koch was down from Milwaukee.

Tyree Bate leaves for home tonight.

Little Jed Waldo was a sportsman in miniature, with his corduroys, sweater, high boots and single-barreled shot gun, as yesterday he started for the Desplaines river to shoot, as he said, "ducks, snipe, rabbits—any old thing that jumps up."

The combination book offered only 6 to 5 to place the horses one, two, three in the Abuse race and yet lost money.

Marcus Cartwright was nipped by a sharp-shooter who got him at 30 to 1 for $10 on Rosebeau. The bulk of the money on Rosebeau averaged 5 to 1.

TWO YEAR OLD WINNERS.

Two year old form of 1898 is by no means satisfactory. A good many of the youngsters have shown speed, ability to carry weight, stamina and courage, so that it would hardly do to say we have no good two-year-olds this year. But there remains the patent fact that we have no Hamburg or Domino to be pointed to with pride as a first class two-year-old. Whether this is to be deplored or not is an open question. People delight in viewing a truly great race-horse in action but his presence in a race scares competitors away and his superior power enables him to sweep the board of the most valuable prizes of the turf, thus preventing an equitable division of the money hung up by the jockey clubs among the many owners. It would puzzle the most astute judge of form to say which is the best two-year-old of this year and this is a condition that apparently assures big fields of starters for the three-year-old events of next year.

The table published below will be of interest to students of turf problems. It does not pretend to cover the doings of all the two-year-olds of the year, but it shows clearly enough the performances of most of those that have shown ability to win races in good company.

THE SALE OF MEDDLER.

Concerning the dispersal sale of the horses composing the Neponset Stud at Morris Park last Monday, the New York Sun says:

"When Meddler was offered for sale all the prominent horsemen showed their anxiety to secure him, although he was knocked down at $49,000, a little more than half what he cost as a three-year old. The first bid was $23,000 through Auctioneer Easton, and Sydney Paget promptly raised it $1,000. W. L. Powers, who, it is said, was acting for J. B. Haggin, went $1,000 better, and these two monopolized the bidding until Sydney Paget offered $36,000. Then S. Sanford took a hand in the game with a bid of $37,000, but Sydney Paget hung on, and, after all the others had enough, W. C. Whitney's shrewd racing partner secured Meddler for $49,000, a small price when contrasted with the $150,000 paid for Ormonde by the California millionaire, MacDonough. Ormonde has shown few returns for the princely investment, while Meddler, placed as he will be now, should prove a gold mine and a worthy head of what promises to be the most prominent breeding and racing combination in this country.

"A grand lot of mares, bred to Meddler, also provoked lively competition. Eleven are imported, and all are of the most fashionable stock. One of these, Sunnyside, the dam of Previous and half sister to Sir Walter, was also bought by Sydney Paget. Her price was $2,000, and the price of some of the other matrons also ran into four figures. There was a large gathering at the sale, and nearly every strong stable interested in breeding and racing was represented. Yet no one could be induced to make an acceptable offer for St. Gatien, the noted sire of Meddler, for the very good reason that the horse is in England and might prove to be a risky importation. American horsemen appreciate a bargain when they see it, but they naturally held aloof when Auctioneer Easton stated that the reserve price on the seventeen-year-old horse 3,000 miles away was 1,500 guineas ($7,500).

"The offer of St. Gatien revived an old story, with which few of the present racegoers are familiar. The stud books show that he is by Rotherhill or The Rover, but in Ireland, where the latter horse stood it is asserted that The Rover was responsible for St. Gatien. When St. Gatien ran his sensational dead heat for the English Derby with Harvester, The Rover's owner, a man named Daniel Shine of Listowel, County Kerry, Ireland, was in financial straits, and the sheriff's officers seized The Rover, whose approximate value had been much increased by St. Gatien's showing in the blue ribbon event. Party feeling was at fever heat in County Kerry at the time, and, although the officers were supposed to be keeping close tabs on their prize, they found The Rover lying dead in his stall one morning with his throat cut.

In addition to his dead heat for the Derby, St. Gatien had a phenomenal racing career, during which he suffered defeat only three times in four seasons. Meddler was not raced after his two-year-old season, but his progenitors were. His dam, Busybody, won a fortune through the medium of such notable events as the Middle Park Plate, One Thousand Guineas and The Oaks. She was sold as a three-year-old for $44,000. Meddler's granddam, Spinaway, was also a classic winner, and his third dam, Queen Bertha, was a signal success both on the track and at the stud. Following is a summary of the best prices of yesterday's sale:

Winner—B. f, by Flambeau—Fairy Rose.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily under the whip. The next three were driving Rosebeau found the going to her liking. Off none too well, she raced by her competitors as though they were tied. She was well played and considering the way she won should have been. La Josephine ran a game race. Caywood was driving her the last three furlongs. Sidtilla ran a race. She was off in front, had clear sailing and no excuses. Anna Held stopped badly in the stretch. Rosie Burke could not run fast enough to keep warm. It was a procession all the way.
Rosebeau, place, 2 to 1; show, even. La Josephine, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Sidtilla, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 14, 27, 41, 55, 1:08, 1:23, 1:32.
Winner—B. c, by Hayden Edwards—Fannie Lyons.
Off first break. Start perfect. Won easily; second and third driving to the limit. Elidad is a cracking good mud runner. He played with his field. Considering his known liking for this kind of going and the kind of horses he had to beat his price was a royal one. At the half mile Rutter called on Elidad and he passed Hardy in a jiffy. After that the result was never in doubt. Hardy ran her race. She was stopping badly at the end and had the distance been much further Pensu Roso would have beaten her for the place. The latter was well ridden. Moch did not have as much speed as he did the day before.
Scratched—Tom Calvert, 106; Marcato, 105.
Elidad, place, 3 to 5; show, 3 to 10. Hardly, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Pensu Roso, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 23, 37, 50, 1:05, 1:19.
Winner—Ch. g, by Hanover—Blessing.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second whipped out; third eased at the end. Montgomery got away flying and outran Abuse. He is a wonderful horse in the mud. He had considerably the best of the weights and it told strongly in the going. Martin took no chances and made every post a winning one. Abuse did not have his usual flash of speed and hardly ran his race. It looked on the far turn as though he could go and get Montgomery at any time, but it proved to be an optical delusion. The first two raced far away from the others the first sixteenth. King Bermuda beat the cattle behind him as easily as the first two beat him.
Corrected weights—Dixie Lee, 106.
Montgomery, place, 1 to 5. King Bermuda, show, 1 to 5.

Time, 13, 27, 44, 53, 1:24, 1:51, 1:59.
Winner—B. f, by St. Blaise—Active.
Off at first break to a good start. Won with something left at the end after a hard early drive; second driving hard. Donna Rita liked the going and was a good fly today. She displayed great gameness. At the head of the stretch it looked as though Great Bend would beat her, but the filly responded in grand shape to Dean's hard drive. Great Bend may have been a little short. He was well ridden and showed a lot of speed on the far turn, but tired in the last fifty yards. Plantain never could get to the front. He ran an honest race, though, and out-gamed Mistral II for third money. The latter was on the outside all the way and lost considerable ground. Hosi was outclassed and finished where he belonged.
Donna Rita, place, 9 to 20. Great Bend, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Plantain, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 13, 27, 40, 53, 1:22, 1:36.
Winner—Ch. g, by Blitzen—Sue B.
Off at first break. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third and fourth driving also. Boney Boy ran another good race. He had abundant speed and had everything beaten after going a half mile. Espionage seemed anchored under the weight in the heavy going. Everything considered her price was too short. Doremus was tiring at the end while Harry Nutter was coming strong. The latter would have been third in a few more strides. Silver Tone had no speed at all.
Scratched—Teutons, 102.
Boney Boy, place, 4 to 5; show, 3 to 10. Espionage, place, 1 to 3. Doremus, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 27, 53, 1:23, 1:41.
Winner—B. c, by Florist—Becky B.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third eased at the end. Dunois outclassed the others. He does not fancy such heavy going and that made the price against him. Martin rode him with power at the finish. The colt stumbled right at the wire and it almost cost him the race. Vice Regal, off none too well, got in a mixup on the first turn and ran the best race. He was gaining on the winner fast and would have won had the distance been a trifle further. Bishop Reed had speed but not enough. It was strictly a three-horse race.
Scratched—Nannie L's Sister, 107.
Overweights—Calla Lily, 2 pounds.
Dunois, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Vice Regal, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Bishop Reed, show, even.

Winner—B. g, by Sidney—Madam Midas.
Post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won cleverly; second easily. The first two were staggering at the end. Covington Ky. and Dutch Bard were both poorly ridden. The latter will do better with a better boy. Lady Hamilton had no speed. Fremont showed early speed. Ed Overlook's boy was of little assistance.
Scratched—Zufallig, 94; Rookwood, 100; Irene Blair, 100.
Overweights—Lady Hamilton, 5 pounds; Ed Overlook, 2.
Garnet Ripple, place, 3 to 5. Covington, Ky., place, 2 to 1; show, even. Dutch Bard, show, 2 to 1.
